The dog-owner assures:

- that his/her dog has all the necessary vaccinations and is free of parasites thanks to a regular de-worming and a matching flea and tick agent and is not suffering from any contagious diseases;
- that his/her dog is covered by liability insurance;
- that he/she will pay any possible vet's charges in the event of the dog becoming ill;
- that he/she or the liability insurance company, as the case may be, will bear all costs incurred by a scrap with other dogs;
- that the dog to be cared for is not dangerous and that there have not been any incidents up to now which had to be reported to the supervisory authorities;
- that he/she gives his/her approval to free running on the area provided for this and to playing with other dogs;
- that his/her statements here and on the questionnaire are complete and correspond to the truth;
- that he/she has read the general terms and conditions of business and accepts them.
